

Inside Park at St. Bart's

Dear Friends and Family,

When it's beautiful out, our Terrace has got to be one of the highlight spots for al fresco dining and drinking in Manhattan. When it's hot, humid, muggy, cloudy or raining, our dining room is the place to be for lunch, cocktails, dinner and Sunday brunch -- it's a summer hideaway for business entertaining, romantic getaways and for a quick-fix escape in the heart of midtown.

Sunday Brunch on the Terrace

Brunch on the Terrace is a splendid way to spend a Sunday afternoon. There's something delicious for every appetite: Shirred Eggs with leeks, goat cheese, tomato jam and bacon rashers; House-Smoked Ham with buttermilk biscuits and gravy; Crêpes Suzette with orange marmalade and whipped ricotta; and our Grass-fed Beef Burger with smoked onion remoulade and hand-cut fries. Served Sundays, 10:30 am to 3:00 pm. For reservations, please call (212) 593-3333, or book online at OpenTable.com.

Bar Bites and Cocktails

In addition to wood-fired pizzettes, charcuterie, dips and pickles, we've added some new savory snacks, including Artichoke and Lobster Roe Mousse, a Bucket O' Quail, Spice Speckle Eggs and Provençal Potato Crisps. Also try our refreshing Inside Park Punch (rum, crème de noyaux, orange liqueur, pineapple juice and club soda), Green Tea Mojito and Velvet Drop (citrus vodka, velvet fallernum and lime).

Beer Garden Party with Edible Manhattan

Join us for an evening celebration to welcome the newest issue of Manhattan's beloved locavore magazine and enjoy local beers, roast pig, smoked fish, pickles and other classic Biergarten fare. $55 per person.

Recipe: Caraway Mustard

Dig out those mustard seeds from the cupboard and make your own mustard for summer grilling and picnicking. It's incredibly easy to make. Here is my recipe for a light Eastern-European-style mustard that pairs wonderfully with hot dogs, bratwurst and any kind of sliced deli meats and cold roasts.
